Foreword

Classmates: In collecting the material you find in this volume, we, the members of the Book Committee, have tried to collect such information as may aid you in remembering happy days spent in the New Bedford High School.

Our work is not perfect—there is much room for improvement. Nevertheless we present it, defects and all, so that you may use it as a remembrance of your classmates and your Alma Mater.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1938

By

ELLEN D. HOWLAND

ON A cool, crisp morning in September, 1934, we started out, a group of about 315, on our long four-year hike up High School Mountain.

We were a rather unruly group, unaccustomed to such trips, and as we needed someone to keep us in order, we elected four officers to represent us. Louis Finger was chosen as President and Hermes Touchette, Vice-President. We completed the list with two girls: Ruth Humphreys as Secretary and Grace Sullivan as Treasurer.

The road being new to us, we used nearly all our energy to climb the regular path. However, eight of our number were impatient to get along faster, and they studied extra hard and were admitted to the Honor Society as their reward. Annie Borden, Ethel Bury, Shirley Cohen, Ellen Gaughan, Edward Hicks, Ruth Humphreys, William Perry, and Stella Rusczyk were that group.

We trudged along up the mountain encountering a few bumps and ruts in the road, and we were very glad when we found that we were to have a rest in the form of a summer vacation. Nevertheless, when September came around, we were eager to continue our journey upward. Again we chose officers. This time they were: President, Betty Parlin; Vice-President, Joan Duarte; Secretary, Ruth Humphreys; Treasurer, Harold Ratcliffe.

During this year some of our group were curious to explore other paths which lead off from the main road, and they joined various clubs and organizations, including the debating society, R. O. T. C., orchestra, and band.

Another group were anxious to join the first eight Honor Society members, and they succeeded by being admitted the following September in recognition of their excellent work as freshman and sophomores. The following group were admitted: Gertrude Chervinsky, Elizabeth Dantas, William Devine, Joan Duarte, Milton Gotlib, Cynthia Levy, Beatrice Pierce, Doris Riendeau, Rita Roberts, Jacob Rosenberg, Raymond Sumner, Elizabeth Zajac, and Carl Zeitz.

Before we realized it, being more occupied with various other activities this second lap of the journey, vacation was upon us again. We were glad to rest in preparation for our third section of the road.

In September, when we started out again, we were called Juniors and found it hard to remember that we were once Freshmen. Our officers this time were Sophie Kougias, President; Barbara Perry, Vice-President; Ethel Bury, Secretary; and Dorothy Owers, Treasurer. Some now took to various other paths and many succeeded in gaining recognition. Allan Woodacre in the R.O.T.C. was the highest scoring individual in the whole New England High School division of R.O.T.C. rifle teamsters. Alexander Walder and Talcott Edminster became members of the Debating Society. Edminster won first prize in the finals in the Colby Contest in addition to several other prizes. From the band Roland Messier was acknowledged as the State Champion Drummer, winning a contest in Lowell, Massachusetts. In football those who were outstanding were Ferdinand Baccelli, chosen as Bristol County center, Haskell Kivowitz, Gelose Breault, and Walter Tomkowitz. Breault also played on the basketball team.

For our entertainment the Dramatic Club put on the play, "Growing Pains," and seven of our classmates received parts in it. They were: Norman Burt, Omerine Girouard, Ruth Humphreys, Norma Clay, Elizabeth Zajac, Edward Hicks, and Milton Gotlib. Two of our class members, Ethel Bury and Edward Hicks, received special awards as the outstanding girl and boy in the Junior class. Ethel received a book from the College Club, and Edward received the Harvard book.

CLASS OF JUNE, NINETEEN THIRTY-EIGHT

As we were climbing up the slope of High School Mountain, we saw the group just ahead, the class of January, 1938. They invited us to have our Junior Prom with them, and this we decided to do. Under the leadership of the committee, (Omerine Girouard, Ethel Bury, Winifred Kershaw, Louis Finger, and Sophie Kougias), we enjoyed a pleasant interlude of dancing with our fellow classmates.

Summer had rolled around again, and we left for our last vacation before reaching the summit of High School Mountain. We realized how far we had reached and determined to push forward with greater zeal in our final year. We started out again in September, this time as Seniors. We could see our goal faintly in the distance, and we resolved to make this term our very best one.

Early in the term another group was admitted to the Honor Society; this time it was rather a large group: Anna Afonso, Evelyn Beck, Edward Borecki, Bruno Cesolini, Richard Chace, Doris Chicoine, Maria de Brito, Constance Fauteux, Beatrice Garbatsky, Bertha Horowitz, Elien Howland, Ethel Jones, Mitchell Kolaszewski, Sophie Kougias, Rita Mederios, Dorothy Owers, Lucille Piche, Ruth Rudell, Walter Tomkowicz, and Blanche Zimon.

Officers were chosen. Sophie Kougias was elected President the second time, Samuel Wagstaff served as Vice-President, Ethel Bury still remained as our Secretary, and Omerine Girouard was elected Treasurer.

As we entered into the month of witches and goblins, we held our 7's dance, The Hallowe'en Hop. About one hundred eighty couples participated in the dancing, and everyone agreed that it was a successful affair. The Dramatic Club offered "Stage Door" as its production during our Senior year and a good group again showed the acting ability of our class. Norma Clay, Omerine Girouard, Winifred Kershaw, Milton Gotlib, Jack Messier, Ruth Humphreys, Barbara Perry, Sophie Kougias, Priscilla Shaw, and Allan Woodacre carried off their parts in fine style. A group of our class members stood high in the R.O.T.C. Our graduation left five vacancies. Edward Hicks served as Major, Donald Tomlinson as Captain Adjutant, Roland Des Ruisseaux as Captain, and Allan Woodacre and Kenneth Rice as First Lieutenants. All along our hike we had enjoyed the music of our band and orchestra, and a number of our classmates helped to make it as fine as it was. Those who played were Louise Salles, Violetta Oesting, Barbara Mullins, William Devine, Roland Messier, Talcott Edminster, Nelson Armitage, and Alexander Walder. Also, Jacob Rosenburg, Constance Fauteux, Richard Chace, Betty Parlin, and Florence Lipman were members.

Vacancies were left in other organizations by our graduation. Talcott Edminster, Norma Clay, and Ethel Bury graduating left the offices of president, secretary, and treasurer respectively in Student Council.

All the offices of Girls' League were made vacant by the graduation of Norma Clay, Priscilla Shaw, Ruth Humphreys, and Ethel Bury. Norma was President; Priscilla, Vice-President; Ruth, Secretary; and Ethel, Treasurer.

Near the end of our journey Mr. Williams read us the list of those who reached the top with highest honors. The names in order of their scholastic record were: William Devine, Ellen Gaughan, Stella Rusczyk, Ethel Bury, Raymond Sumner, Annie Borden, Cynthia Levy, Elizabeth Zajac, Joan Duarte, Doris Riendeau, Shirley Cohen, and Edward Hicks.

Before our most anticipated climax, the graduation exercises, we held our Senior Prom. No one who most attended could help feeling that it was certainly a successful farewell dance. At our banquet several days later, we were very excited and happy and yet a little thoughtful when we realized that this was our last social gathering as a class group. We made the best of our last opportunity and left feeling glad that we were a part of the class of June 1938.

As we neared our graduation, we realized that we were not the only graduates. Mr. Williams, our Principal, who had so faithfully escorted classes up the four-year grade also was to leave the school. May his spirit of unselfish devotion to the pupils' welfare be an inspiration to us and to his successor!

June 23, we gained the summit—the goal reached and the prize won. With our diplomas in our hands, we realized that we were no longer students of the New Bedford High School, but graduates with memories of happy days spent there. However, let us be thankful instead of sad, and let the lessons we learned enable us to reach the highest goals we have set for ourselves in life.

RAYMOND E. DUVAL—"Lefty" Commercial
Woonsocket, R. I. September 20, 1921

Raymond came from the Normandin Junior High School. He has an ambition that is not in keeping with the rest of our ambitions. He wishes to be a jack of all trades. This is a large order, but we hope that he will be successful in all he does.

LAURINDA FERRO—"Lolly" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. January 5, 1921

Office work appeals very much to "Lolly" who loves to type and take shorthand. She will be an asset to any business firm. She was a graduate of Normandin Junior High.

EDWARD FIEJDAZ—"Eddie" Scientific
Attleboro, Mass. November 2, 1920

Edward, a graduate of Normandin Junior High School, has not as yet decided what to do when he leaves us, but we know that his conservative nature, reliability, and eagerness to cooperate, will get him somewhere in the future.

LOUIS FINGER—"Lou" College Scientific
New Bedford, Mass. June 13, 1920

Louis certainly can argue. Maybe this is why he has done such good work as defense counsel of the Student Court. He has been a member of the Junior Prom Committee, 7's Dance Committee, member of the Student Council and Science Club. He plans to enter college in the fall.

MILDRED FOLEY College General
New Bedford, Mass. July 31, 1921

Here is a girl who is known for her abundance of vitality. Mildred graduated from the Holy Name School and since she has been in high school she has gained countless friends. Mildred intends to attend some business college in the future. We wish her lots of luck.

WM. HENRY JUNIER—"Bill" Commercial
Cumberland, R. I. May 6, 1921

"Bill," one of the best dancers in the class, is a very cheerful fellow. He would like to enter the field of business. We feel sure that we'll read of his success in the future. He graduated from Roosevelt Junior High.

LOUISE JUSTLEY—"Lou" College General
New Bedford, Mass. April 11, 1920

"Lou" graduated from Roosevelt Junior High. She can make mischief when she so desires. This may be the reason for her joining the Girls Chorus. She is a talkative young lady. (Aren't they all?)

MYRTLE KAY College General
Providence, R. I. April 20, 1920

During the four years' association with her, we have found her to be a very even-tempered and pleasant associate.

ALBERT KELLEY Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. August 3, 1920

An agreeable and carefree fellow, Albert likes his little jokes. With his ambitions for a special career rather indefinite he has preferred to enjoy the fleeting moments and so has spent much time in teasing his many friends.

JOHN KOCZERA—"Jan" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. April 6, 1920

John graduated from the Parker Street School. He is very timid, but we can bet that he will overcome it when he leaves to face the business world that is awaiting him. He is a good sport. His friends delight in seeing him blush.

MITCHELL KOLACZEWSKI—"Mike" Scientific
New Bedford—Oct. 1, 1920

Mitchell came to us from the Normandin Junior High School. He has done exceptionally well in his studies and has gained the reward of becoming a member of the Honor Society. He is undecided as to his future, but we know that he will succeed in whatever he undertakes.

NICKOLAS KOSTA Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. Sept. 24, 1920

Nickolas was an active chap in the R. O. T. C., for he held the office of Second Lieutenant. He also attended drawing classes, played in the orchestra, and was on the Traffic Squad. Here's wishing you the best of luck, Nickolas.

FELIX KOZACZKA Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. August 30, 1920

Felix is a graduate of the Normandin Junior High School. He was manager member of the N.B.H.S. Track Team. Felix may be small in physique, but he certainly can hold his own in any game.

CECELIA P. KOZAKO—"Sally" Classical
New Bedford, Mass. Sept. 20, 1919

Cecelia graduated from the Mt. Pleasant Street School and then went to Uxbridge High and later entered New Bedford High. She elected drawing as an extra curricula activity, and was a member of the Leaders' Club. She plans to enter Wilfred Academy in the fall.

LUCILLE LAFERRIERE—"Lu" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. April 6, 1920

Lucille was a graduate of Normandin Junior High. She plans to enter the field of salesmanship. Being a perfect salesgirl is her idea for the future. We know she will get to the top as a salesgirl.

NORMAN LA PLANTE—"Woody" Commercial
New Bedford—Oct. 3, 1918

Sacred Heart School sent us Norman. He may be shy, but his friends are won and kept. His deep voice makes one take notice of what he says. Norman's interest in drawing has been noticeable. Although Norman has not planned his future, we know that he will be successful in anything he does.

MARY E. LASEGO—"Toni" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. July 25, 1920

Mary might well be called a typical American school girl. She was very active in the Glee Club and in drawing. She was a graduate of the Thomas R. Rodman School, and plans to further her education at a higher institution.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

HILDA LASSOW Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. February 21, 1921
Normandin Junior High School and now N.B.H.S. have graduated Hilda. Business school will be her next step in learning. After that, she plans to enter the world of business. There she should become a leader.

ELSIE LEACH Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. March 5, 1920
Elsie is a graduate of the Roosevelt Junior High School. She was unanimously elected to the Cap and Gown Committee because of her ability to do work well. She has a pleasing personality which is sure to get her somewhere when she leaves us.

MARGUERITE LEATHAM—"Maggie"
Wilmington, Del.—Oct. 22, 1919 Commercial
From P. S. Dupont High, Wilmington, Delaware, this girl finds joy in everything she does. Marguerite is interested in many subjects, the most important of which is people. In 1936, debating interested her, and when living in Delaware she took up Dramatics. Marguerite hopes to be an author, and at present she is a reporter for the "Standard-Times."

RITA LEMIEUX—"Rit" Commercial

JOSEPH LEWIS—"Joe" Commercial
Fairhaven, Mass. Sept. 10, 1920
Joe is a graduate of the Normandin Junior High School. Do not mistake Joe for the pugilist Joe Louis. Our Joe is always the good-natured fellow. He intends to take up some Civil Service work.

WILLIAM L'HEUREUX—"Billy" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. May 18, 1920
Quiet and friendly are the outstanding characteristics of William. He graduated from the Normandin Junior High School. Since then he has been cooperative and reliable in his studies. This point, we are sure, will help him to find the work that he wishes to do when he leaves us in June.

ROBERT LONG—"Bob" College Scientific
New Bedford, Mass. March 17, 1921
Bob graduated from Normandin Junior High. He plans to go to Textile School and take up Chemistry. He is a member of the Science Club and takes drawing. Bob is rather noisy, but a very nice person to know.

EDWARD MACKLER—"Eddie" Classical
Boston, Mass. August 7, 1921
Eddie graduated from the C. A. Cook School. He wants to be a doctor, and he'll make a fine one. He is comical and witty and his patients will probably forget that they were ever sick.

LORRAINE MacMULLIN—"Lor" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. January 7, 1921
Lorraine came to us from the Sacred Heart School. She has been our featured dancer in the Varsity Show, and in the Class Day performance of 1938. Lorraine plans to do office work when she leaves us in June.

JAMES W. MARGESON, JR.—"Jim"
New Bedford—Nov. 2, 1918 Scientific
Jim is one of our so-called handsome lads; however he isn't what you would call a lady's man. Maybe it is because he is so bashful. He came from Normandin Junior High, took up Mechanical Drawing and R.O.T.C. as electives. He is undecided as to his further plans.

JEANNETTE MASSE Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. June 12, 1920
Quiet and aloof is Jeannette to those who don't really know her, but we know you would change your mind if you knew her as a friend. She hails from Roosevelt Junior High. Her plans for the future are undecided, but Jeannette is bound to succeed.

CLASS OF JUNE, NINETEEN THIRTY-EIGHT

PAULINE McASKILL College General
Fall River, Mass. October 7, 1919

Pauline is a graduate of the Parker St. School. She is another future "woman in white." You couldn't have chosen a more honorable profession, Pauline.

ROSEANNE McHUGH Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. March 1, 1920

This blue-eyed youngster from the Betsey B. Winslow School, you must admit, has a busy life. As a member of the Philomathean Club when a 3 and 7, a model in the Style Show in '37, marshal when a 1 through a 5, and Girls' Chorus when a 7, she has done her part as an ideal New Bedfordite. Her plan for the future is to train for nursing.

ELSIE MEDEIROS Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. October 16, 1920

This student graduated from Roosevelt Junior High before attending N.B.H.S. The future will find Elsie entering the business world. She would like to become a buyer in some big department store. Good luck to you, Elsie.

JOSEPH MEDEIROS Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. October 19, 1919

Joseph is a graduate of the Roosevelt Junior High School. He is well-liked by his friends and he has a good chance of making something—or somebody—of himself if he will only "put his nose to the grindstone."

JACOB ROSENBERG—"Jack" Classical
Boston, Mass. Sept. 28, 1920

Jack came to us from the Betsey B. Winslow School. He plans to enter college after graduation. He is a member of the orchestra, band and art class. Jack is Chief Justice of the Student Court at present and really would make a fine lawyer.

WILLIAM ROSEN—"Bill" Commercial
Bronx, N. Y. June 4, 1920

Bill, forever active and comical, has often been an amusing cynosure. He was a member of the Classbook Committee and of the Salesmanship Dance Committee. His future has not been decided as yet but we know he will succeed for Bill always gets what he goes after.

SANFORD S. RUBIN—"Sid" Scientific
New Bedford, Mass. Feb. 3, 1920

Noisy "Sid" is a graduate of Roosevelt Junior High and hopes to enroll at some college. During his high school days he has been a member of the Hi-Y, a player on the second basketball team. We wish the best of luck in your college work, "Sid."

ROGER G. SANSOUY—"Jake" Scientific
Lachine, Canada Dec. 21, 1919

We weren't sure that this was Roger until we read his writeup; it is so hard to distinguish him from his brother. He was assistant to the Football Manager for two terms, and assistant to the Basketball Manager for two years. Roger also was a member of the Hi-Y. His plans for the future have not been decided.

NEW BEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL

JACQUELINE SENESAC—"Jacky" General
New Bedford, Mass. April 5, 1919

"Jacky," a graduate of Normandin Junior High, has decided that opportunities await her in the field of nursing. As the majority rules in this class, "Jacky" is voted an excellent future nurse.

ADOLPH SETERA—"Dellec" Scientific
New Bedford, Mass. July 22, 1920

Curly-headed Adolph came to us from Normandin Junior High. We can't seem to get off the subject of his hair; it certainly is the envy of all the girls. Adolph is quiet but this has not stopped him from making friends. His plans for the future have not yet been formulated, but whatever they may be he is sure to be a success.

GEORGE SEVCORELIS—"Butch" General
Louisville, Ky. Sept. 6, 1919

George came here from the Killingly High School in Danielson, Conn., and while he has not had much chance to participate in extra curricula activities here, he was quite active at Killingly High. He was a reporter for the Science Club and Vice-President of the Future Farmers of America. He is undecided as to his future plans, but whatever they are he has the good wishes of our class.

JANET HOPE SHELLEY—"Prissie" General
Cape Girardeau, Mo. Dec. 2, 1919

Janet is the girl who always wears a smile. Born way down in Missouri, she has come a long way since then and attended the Parker Street School from which she graduated. She plans to be either a secretary or an authoress, and we're sure "Prissie" would be capable of doing either.

CELESTINA SILVA—"Sally" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. May 13, 1920

Celestina came from Normandin Junior High. She enjoys dancing and reading. Her ambition is to become a secretary to some important man. We hope her ambition is fulfilled.

BARBARA SMITH—"Babs" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. Sept. 8, 1918

Barbara hails from the Betsey B. Winslow School. She is the shortest, tiniest member of our graduating class. "Babs" is known throughout the school as a good friend. She is still undecided as to what her future will be.

BARBARA A. SMITH—"Smitty" Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. April 28, 1920

A graduate from Normandin Junior High, "Smitty's" charming personality will no doubt take her places in this world. Her position as cheerleader, member of various committees in the Girls' League, and tap dancer of many talent shows have shown what a good worker she is.

ANNA SOARES College General
New Bedford, Mass. April 27, 1920

Anna came to us from the Parker Street School. She was on the nominating committee of the Science Club. Anna intends taking up the worthwhile profession of nursing in some Boston hospital. Anna enjoys a good time and she likes to share the fun.

VYLD A RAE SOUZA Commercial
New Bedford, Mass. Dec. 6, 1920

Roosevelt Junior High was the school Vylda attended before coming to N.B.H.S. She would like work in the commercial field. Besides enjoying this sort of work very much, she also has a yen for piano playing. Luck to you, Vylda.
